Introduction

Welcome to the publishing history of custom cars and custom hot rods. Since I was a child and attended my first custom car show at the now-defunct Terrace Ball Room in Salt Lake City and read Rod & Custom and Customs Illustrated magazines in grade school, I've been fascinated with restyled cars. In fact, obsessed. I've compiled this list for my convenience in researching vintage and contemporary custom cars, as well as to offer to custom car enthusiasts everywhere a research-ready source of references.

This list is divided into subdivisions:

- A: Famous Custom Hot Rods
- B: Famous Custom Cars
- C: Spence Murray's Dream Truck
- D: Styling Ideas by Marque and Vintage
- E: Styling Ideas by Techniques and Details
- F: Custom Car Styling/Critiques/General Techniques
- G: Vintage Speed Equipment/Techniques/Engines/Mechanical
- H: Personalities
- I: General Custom Car Articles
- J: Oakland Roadster Show
- K: Coverage of pre-World War II custom cars.

In each section, magazine lists start with the oldest one and then progress to the most recent listed. In some cases, listed articles cover cars or events earlier than the cover date of the magazine. Most, but not all, listings are to historic magazines with only a smattering of contemporary magazines – continuing work will include current magazines.

Every attempt has been made to ensure that the references are correct. However, the reader is encouraged to advise me of mistaken listings, or of missing listings for any of the cars listed here, or for any suggestions on how to improve this bibliography. E-mail me at: msgsl@xmission.com

As time permits, this list will be expanded to include additional magazine and book references. This historical bibliographic reference list is a work in progress and is being constantly updated.

Dedication:

This list is dedicated to every back-yard craftsman who has wielded a hack saw, torch, lead paddle and spray gun, as well as to the well-known professional masters of the custom car profession, as they restyled cars to match their visions. More even than those wonderful builders, this book is dedicated to the individual enthusiast – to the little boys and their adult selves who were and are fascinated by the resculpted fender, the frenched antenna, the chopped top and sectioned body, and the scintillating candy and pearl paint jobs. This list is for the dreamers!
